

Hire a car and discover your own movie moment in Morocco

Fancy something a bit different this autumn, why not visit Morocco? With its rich blend of European, African and Arabic cultures, along with many vibrant attractions and beautiful beaches, it appeals as much to the sun-worshipper as to the relic hunter. With this weekly special offering 30% off via our car hire supplier Locationauto, whatever type of holiday you're looking for, a rental car will accommodate all your needs by getting you from A to B.

Although Rabat is the capital, the larger cities of Casablanca, Marrakech and Fez a bit further to the east, attract most of the tourists. Casablanca acts as the star of Morocco. Who can ever forget the famous line "All right, I will. Here's looking at you, kid"? But apart from forever being linked to the movie, Casa today offers a fascinating blend of trying to keep with the times, whilst retaining its traditional charm. It is certainly worth a visit, and if one does end up at Rick's Café, remember to tip Sam! If it is traditional Morocco you are looking for, turn the rental car to Marrakech or Fez and be mesmerized by pulsating colours, bustling markets and a maze of narrow alleyways to get lost down! In addition to these great cities, Morocco has many natural attractions and historic relics. From beautiful beaches to the Atlas Mountains and sophisticated Mosques to Roman ruins, this great country has a lot of to offer travelers driving around in a rental car.

To visit all of these amazing cities and attractions, there is no better or easier way than a car hire. If you don't book ahead of time, car hire can be expensive and options limited. That is why carhiremarket.com has joined up with car hire supplier Locationauto to offer you an exclusive special saving of up to 30% off for Casablanca and Marrakech for the pick-up dates 01.10.2010 - 31.10.2010.
