

Last Minute Majorca - Save up to 30%

Spring time in Majorca is always one of the most popular holiday destinations for the Brits as it constantly delivers in offering a great variety for holidaymakers.

For a fantastic day out, one should rent a local Majorca car hire and head to the Cap de Formentor. Positioned on the very northern tip of Majorca, this wonderful location offers stunning panoramic views and an amazing road trip. The drive is full of lovely intricate roads and breathtaking beaches. Alternatively for some culture and history, look no further than La Seu Cathedral in the heart of Palma. Built originally in 1231 by King James II, the La Seu is full of light and offers a taste of traditional Gothic Architecture. For a final stop on the Majorca car hire journey, drive to the Playa de S'amarado and watch the sunset. With its bluer than blue sea and sandy white beach, it is easy to see why it is consistently ranked as one of the best beaches in Europe.

If one is planning a trip in April to this charming Balearic Island and would like to use the time to explore it independently, this special for car hire Majorca should not be overlooked.
